Acushnet Dedicates Veterans Memorial

By Kenneth J. Souza

At eleven o'clock on the eleventh day of the eleventh month, the American flags flying above the Acushnet Town Hall and Acushnet Police Department were simultaneously lowered to half-staff position in recognition of the fallen war veterans from the town. Nearby at the corner facing the town's busiest intersection, a crowd of residents gathered to honor those who gave their lives for their country.

In tandem with the appropriate Veterans Day holiday, a new stone monument listing the fifteen Acushnet residents who died in battle was unveiled and dedicated near the World War II vintage artillery gun which was also recently refurbished. The memorial was suggested and designed by members of the town's American Legion and VFW organizations, representatives of which were present for the dedication.

"Over fifty years ago, this small community — like many others — sent their young men and women into the service of our country," said Selectmen Chairman Robert J. St. Jean in his introduction. "Of the many from our town who answered the call, fifteen did not return. Today we pay our respects and express our gratitude to Above (right): The dome ceiling was placed on top of the lobby/entrance portion of the new addition to Fairhaven High School via crane last week. The project is expected to be completed before the end of the current school year in time for the freshman Class of 2002. Many students either signed their initials or drew messages to their classmates in colored chalk on the dome, which will later be covered with slate. (Photo by Diane Lopes).

On the cover: A new granite war memorial was unveiled and dedicated this week outside of the Acushnet Town Hall. The monument lists the fifteen town residents who died in battle and was dedicated at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month — the moment at which the armistice was signed in 1918, ending World War I. The unit will be used to watch videotaped copies of various town board meetings, all of which will be catalogued and kept on file at the library. (Photo courtesy of COG).

those brave men. All of the names on this granite stone will stand forever to remind us that the freedom we enjoy today came at a very high price."

"May this memorial stand like a sentinel on duty to remind us that those who came before us and gave their full measure did not die in vain," Chairman St. Jean continued. "Therefore we dedicate this memorial to those brave men and women who made the supreme sacrifice during World War II. We are forever grateful for their bravery and devotion both to their families and to our country. Through this memorial they will forever be remembered by the citizens of Acushnet."

The tall granite memorial was then unveiled to reveal the names of the fifteen Acushnet residents who gave their lives for their country during the war: Henry Alberski, Arthur Bernado, Edmond P. Cusson, Leroy T. H. Ellis, Ernest Frates, Roger Lapage, Theodore Laycock, Thomas McGrath, Antonio Magalhaes, Albert Poirier, Thomas Tuttle, Antonio M. Pontes, Daniel Szpotowski, Maurice D. Goudreau, and Joseph H. Booker Jr.

The monument was crafted by the Tootel Monument Works Company of New Bedford and was erected outside of Town Hall by members of the Acushnet Department of Public Works. Selectmen Chairman St. Jean noted that the funding for the monument — which was less than $1,000 — would be taken out of the Board of Selectmen's account.

"I think (the monument) is a tribute to the deceased veterans of World War II," Selectman St. Jean said. "And it's appropriate at this time because it was over 50 years ago that World War II ended. This is a good way to remember a generation which is, unfortunately, passing on."

Also on hand to speak in memory of departed veterans was George "Duke" Doucette of the American Legion and Eugene "Sparky" O'Neil of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) post. The honor guard delegation was comprised of Commander Ray LaFrance, Senior Vice Commander Donald Lafond, Adjutant Tim Sherman, and Barry Jeglinski.

COG Donates TV/VCR to Library

Citizens for Open Government (COG), a Mattapoisett political action group, raised donations and purchased a combined television and VCR which was donated to the Mattapoisett Public Library on October 23. Lynn Sylvia, the co-chairman of COG, presented it to Library Director Sue Tweedy in the presence of Chairman Joan Anderson and Bob Atkinson of the Library Trustees on behalf of the COG committee. Members of the COG committee include Peter Cadden, Frances Cairns, Diane Couture, Tony Lockwood, and Nancy Olsen.

COG has received many telephone calls and positive comments following the televising of the Board of Selectmen's meetings and other board meetings that it seemed appropriate to have a place in which tapes could be stored, catalogued and viewed by residents. And what better location than the library? The Library Trustees agreed to store and catalogue the tapes. Any resident can now visit the library and look at any of the taped meetings. The tapes will be available for several months following the meetings.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

November 10, 1997

By Pamela L. Sylvia

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order at 7:10 pm by Chairman Richard Cutler. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes, Selectman William Chamberlain, Executive Secretary Russell Dean, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere.

On the agenda between 7:15 and 7:30 pm, the board met with three prospective candidates for the Assistant Dog Officer position vacancy in town. First the board spoke with Robin Prezner, then Richard Sevigny, then finally Bradford Morse. All have lived in Rochester for several years and would like to offer their services to the town. Major questions asked by the board were whether the candidates had ever "put down" an animal, carried a firearm, or if availability would be a problem. Two of the candidates have firearm licenses, and all have experience handling large animals such as deer and horses.

The board seemed pleased with the response to the ad for the position. They made a motion to have all three candidates sworn in to help. With the three working simultaneously, this should keep all schedules flexible with each person available at different times of the day.

Police Chief Walter Denham did have one request of the board. He thinks it would be wise to hold a meeting with the Communications Department dispatchers, all Dog Officers and himself. This would allow all parties involved to become better acquainted and to work out a schedule of availability. This meeting will be scheduled within the next few weeks.

On the agenda at 7:30 pm, the board met with John Decas from the Decas Cranberry Bog Company regarding the water withdrawal application he has submitted. Mr. Decas came before the board to express his strong disapproval of a letter written by Herring Inspector William D. Watling. The letter stated how upset Mr. Watling was in the fact that if the new cranberry bogs are built they will affect the water and supply and the herring. Mr. Decas expressed great concern, saying "He has never been on my property to ask my intentions or opinions. I am absolutely shocked (that) he would write such a unilateral letter that would affect us."

Mr. Decas asked several questions of the board, looking for anyone who could provide answers. First, he asked what evidence Mr. Watling had of the herring suffering because of his new bog plan. Then he asked the board if this is how they actually feel, since the Selectmen don't have jurisdiction over the Herring Inspector, or if this is solely the personal feelings of Mr. Watling. Finally, Mr. Decas asked why an elected town official would comment on surrounding towns becoming affected by this when they do not even own and operate cranberry bogs in Marion and Mattapoisett.

The Board of Selectmen informed Mr. Decas that the Herring Inspector — though affiliated with the Board of Selectmen — is a separate entity, and anything that may happen as a result of the position and anyone who holds it does not necessarily reflect the ideas or feelings of the board. Mr. Decas listened to that point but then replied: "I think I deserve to have the support of the board ... at least so no lies are told about me." But to finish off his point, Mr. Decas informed the packed room that he knows of no other cranberry bog company that has installed a "Herring Protection Program" into its production policies.

The board made a motion that Executive Secretary Dean call all parties together to clear this matter up. Parties will include Mr. Decas, Mr. Watling, other cranberry producing companies, and the Board of Selectmen. A possible hearing will take place next Monday. If interested, please call the Town Hall for a definite meeting place and time.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received:

- A letter from Fire Chief Scott Ashworth regarding the acceptance of section 20F of the Conflict of Interest Law. Chief Ashworth is concerned about fire fighters holding dual jobs within the town. Currently, the Fire Department has four call fire fighters, three of which are also EMT's who work full-time within the Highway Department. After speaking with the State Ethics Commission, Chief Ashworth was informed that this situation would not be a problem since the Town of Rochester falls under certain criteria. That criteria includes a population of under 35,000 residents, that there are currently no full-time employees that devote all time to just to Fire Department duties, and a positive vote from the Board of Selectmen. The four employees that would fall under this exception would be Jeffrey Eldridge, Robert Laferriere, Greg Weigel, and Richard Malatesta.

The board saw no problems with implementing this new amendment. The board accepted the exemption indicated under Section 20F for town personnel;

- A letter from Linda S. Towers expressing her interest in becoming a member of the town's Scholarship Board;

- Copy of a memo sent to School Superintendent Joan M. Walsh from Carol Adams, Executive Secretary of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen. The Mattapoisett board concurs with selecting Rochester Selectman William Chamberlain and Marion Selectman Jody Dickerson as members of the ORR Building Construction and Selectmen was called to order on Monday, November 10 at 6:00 pm by Chairman Robert J. St. Jean. Also present were Selectman Everett L. Hardy Jr., Selectman Peter W. Koczera, and Executive Secretary Elaine G. Miranda.

The board first discussed receipt of a letter from MediaOne cable regarding the provision of cable television service to residents on Hershey Way and Nestle's Lane. The board agreed to pass this matter along to Attorney Epstein, their special counsel regarding the municipal cable contract.

Ms. Miranda noted receipt of a request from Gagnon's Liquors to open on Sundays from Thanksgiving through New Years. This is a common practice for package stores during the holiday season, and the board noted they had granted permission for this in the past. They unanimously voted to allow any of the four package stores in town to open beginning the Sunday before Thanksgiving through the Sunday before New Years from 12:00 noon to 9:00 pm (if they so desired).

The board next unanimously voted to appoint Randall Durigan of Fairhaven as the town's interim Deputy Wiring Inspector to fill in for Frank Knox when he is unable to make inspection calls. The board noted they would be appointing a Deputy Wiring Inspector for the town later this month.

Brenda Raposa of the Safety Committee next asked if the board had previously approved the replacement of an existing 70-watt street light between the Acushnet Elementary School and Ford Middle School with a 100-watt street light across the street from its present location. According to Ms. Raposa, this matter was approved by the board back in May. But Selectman Hardy was reluctant to approve the installation of a larger light since Town Meeting voters approved $1,000 for the installation of 70-watt street lights only.

"We discussed this at Town Meeting ... and I was under the impression that (voters) wouldn't approve anything over 70 (watts)," Selectman Hardy said. "I'm concerned about the need for lighting (near the schools), but I also want to be fair to those who have requested new lights and we've turned them down."

The board agreed to ask Safety Officer Paul Melo to come in next week to discuss the need for a larger wattage light near the schools.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received a request from Nine Island Restaurant to extend their operating hours to 1:00 am on New Year's Eve (December 31). The establishment's license presently requires them to close at 12:00 midnight. The board noted that by extending their hours they could have entertainment (music) until 12:30 am, serve drinks until 1:00 am, would have to clean up the bottles and glasses by 1:15 am, and have everyone leave the premises by 1:30 am. All these regulations are clearly spelled out in their All-Alcoholic Beverage License approved by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission (ABCC).

Selectman Koczera moved to allow Nine Island Restaurant to remain open to 1:00 am on New Year's Eve with the aforementioned stipulations. The board unanimously approved the motion.

The board next received a request from Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) to remind Acushnet residents that their "Tie One On For Safety" red ribbon campaign is now in full swing for the holiday season. As such, MADD has requested that the board issue a proclamation urging that residents join in by attaching and displaying their red ribbons throughout the holiday season.

The board unanimously voted to issue the following proclamation: "Be it resolved that Acushnet, in recognition of the worthwhile endeavor of the MADD Lifesaving Project, encourages its citizens to participate by proudly affixing and displaying their red ribbons for the duration of the holiday season."

The board next received a letter from Fire Chief Paul Cote regarding an anonymous complaint filed with the state Division of Occupational Safety concerning

INCREASE IN 2-INCOME BUYERS

An increasing number of first-time home buyers have a two-wage earner family. A most recent survey found that 75% of repeat home buyers were two-income families, up from 50% four years ago. However, among first-time buyers, a whopping 86% have two-income earners. This is up from 62% four years ago. Of the home buyers interviewed, three out of every four families had two incomes. As can be seen, there is a definite two-income trend in homebuying.

Until a few years ago, only the income of the husband was considered when qualifying for a mortgage. Fortunately, the philosophies of the lenders have changed. New laws have forced many such changes. Equal rights legislation have impelled lenders to revise the archaic thinking. The wife's income is now taken into account equally with that of her husband. Thus the combined incomes of husband and wife for mortgage purposes are used to determine the monthly payment that couples qualify for.

alleged safety hazards at the Acushnet Town Hall and a "possible conspiracy to hide such by myself, the Building Commissioner, and the Board of Selectmen." Among Chief Cote's findings:

- The upstairs hall should not be used for document storage;
- All paper recycling bins should be replaced with metal covered containers;
- Cleaning supplies are being stored behind a door in hallway on second floor;
- Area under basement stairs on South Main Street side is being used to store old ceiling tiles;
- Electrical box cover missing in basement hallway at foot of east side stairway;
- Records are being stored in front of electrical sub-panel in basement; and
- Exit lights and emergency lights in basement need to be moved because of the additional rooms that were built in the basement have affected the line of sight.

Selectman Hardy was concerned that the anonymous complaint suggested they were trying to hide something. "I don't think there's a conspiracy to hide anything on behalf of the Board of Selectmen, the Building Inspector, or Fire Chief," he said. "I think we should bring Chief Cote and Mr. Lyonnaise in here to discuss these alleged violations."

But Selectman Koczera felt they needed to take action immediately to let the state know they were working to correct the problems. "We should address these issues right away," he said. "Let's get these things resolved immediately ... we certainly don't want to be in violation of any safety codes."

The board unanimously voted to draft a letter to the OSHA agency advising them that they are working on rectifying these violations and also to schedule a meeting with both Fire Chief Cote and Building Inspector Lyonnaise to discuss any further safety issues which need to be addressed. "We'll let (the state) know we're working on these problems and it may take a couple of weeks to fix," Selectman Koczera said.

Board of Public Works (BPW) Chairman Kenneth Souza next came before the board to discuss the sidewalk construction project on South Main Street. According to Mr. Souza, the Tibbetts Engineering Corporation completed their engineering plans to make the sidewalks handicapped-accessible along South Main Street, however the plans must now conform to new standards adopted on October 8, 1997. These additional modifications to the design will cost another $7,170.

Mr. Souza wanted to know if this money could be transferred from the Reserve Fund so the project could continue without delay. "If we get a grant, we'll be golden," he said. "But if not, we'll need the additional $7,000."

Selectman Koczera suggested they might ask grant writer Sharon Gay to see if she could drum up some funding for the project. In the meantime, the board advised Mr. Souza to submit a transfer request to the Finance Committee (FinCom) in light of the unforeseen nature of these design changes.

The Massachusetts State Lottery Commission next sent notification that JT's Pub on Slocum Street has been approved for a Keno license at their establishment. The board unanimously voted to endorse the issuing of a Town Treasurer John Nunes next sent a memo to the board advising them that the Post Office will no longer allow the town to use its current postage meter after December 31, 1998. He wanted to make them aware of this situation so they can plan for the next Town Meeting to request funding for a new unit. The board agreed to ask Mr. Nunes to research the potential cost involved and agreed to place an article on the next Town Meeting warrant for this purpose.

Emergency Management Agency (EMA) Director Gerard Bergeron next came before the board to recommend the awarding of a bid to side the town's EMA Building as approved at Town Meeting. Mr. Bergeron noted that Town Meeting voters had approved $6,500 for the project. He requested bids from four siding companies, but only two responded — Mark's Home Improvements of Fairhaven and Steve Norcross General Contractor of Mattapoisett.

Mr. Bergeron recommended that they award the bid to Steve Norcross as lowest bidder at $6,350 (Mark's Home Improvement was $7,650). The board unanimously approved Mr. Bergeron's bid recommendation.

At 7:30 pm the board unanimously voted to go into Executive Session for a six-month review of Town Treasurer John Nunes' performance with Director of Finances Alan Coutinho. There being no further matters to discuss, the board would thereafter adjourn for the evening. Their next regular meeting will be held on Monday, November 17 at 6:00 pm.

Among the homes on this year's tour, one will find the Captain Peleg Gifford house, built circa 1835 by the prosperous whaling captain. It was in this home that the wedding of Gifford's daughter, Abbie, to Henry Huttleston Rogers took place on November 17, 1862. After Rogers became a multimillionaire in the Standard Oil Company, Abbie donated the Fairhaven Town Hall to her hometown, one of many benefactions that Fairhaven received from the Rogers family. Another home on the tour connected to the Rogers is a house that was once the power plant of H. H. Rogers' mansion near Fort Phoenix.

You'll be able to tour a saltbox style home built circa 1815 for Franklin Bates, brother of the founder of the Seventh Day Adventists, Joseph Bates. This home was later owned by Captain Ebenezer Pierce who gave the sloop Spray to Joshua Slocum, who came to Fairhaven at Pierce's invitation and sailed the Spray around the world alone from 1895 to 1898.

All of this year's homes are new to the Holiday House Tour and many have never been open to the general public before. Home owners and club volunteers will be at each house to act as guides. Light refreshments will be available at the Coggeshall Memorial House, home of the Fairhaven Colonial Club.

ANTIFREEZE POISONING

My dog was in the garage with me as I was changing the antifreeze in my car. He sniffed the old antifreeze and was going to drink it. I stopped him. Would it make him sick?

Antifreeze (Ethylene glycol) has a sweet smell that is, unfortunately, attractive to dogs. It can cause kidney failure if the dog is not treated within 4-6 hours after drinking this poison. If you see your dog or cat drinking antifreeze, take him to your veterinarian immediately.

Depot in Marion received initial accreditation and Old Rochester Regional School District's integrated preschool program, Project GROW, received reaccreditation from the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). Cynthia Dawicki, a licensed family child care provider in Mattapoisett, was awarded a Child Development Associate (CDA) credential by the Council for Early Childhood Professional Recognition.

All of these professionals were supported through Old Rochester's Community Partnerships for Children grant. The grant was developed by the Tri-Town Early Childhood Advisory Council and funded by the Massachusetts Department of Education. To work toward the goal of ensuring high quality early childhood programs for families in Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester, the grant provided funds to pay for accreditation materials and fees, training, classroom materials and technical assistance.

Programs seeking accreditation by NAEYC undergo an intensive self-study, collecting information from parents, teachers, administrators and classroom observations. They receive an on-site visit, conducted by early childhood professionals specially trained by NAEYC, to validate their self-study results. All of this information is independently reviewed by a team of national experts who grant or defer accreditation. Accreditation lasts for three years.

Similarly, a candidate in the CDA process engages in an intensive self-study process. An early childhood professional observes the candidate working with young children. The candidate must also demonstrate the ability to work with families to develop children's physical and intellectual capabilities in a safe and healthy working environment. A written and oral test are a part of the process. The CDA is awarded to professionals like Cynthia Dawicki in recognition of outstanding work with young children.

The Tri-Town Early Childhood Advisory Council recognizes The Children's Depot, Project GROW, and Cynthia Dawicki for their commitment to excellence and congratulates them for attaining recognition from national professional organizations. Locally, they join Little People's College in Mattapoisett as accredited early childhood programs.

THINGS HAVE CHANGED...

THE HOTTEST CENTURY 21 TEAM IN THE NORTHEAST HAS ARRIVED!!

CENTURY 21 Hughes & Carey is opening its newest office at 76 County Road in Mattapoisett.
That's good news for you.

Why?

Because CENTURY 21 Hughes & Carey isn't just another real estate company.

We're a Marketing Organization!

When we market your home or find you a new one, we bring more resources to the table than any other real estate company in the Northeast,

Bar none.

Like our Fine Homes and Estates® and Recreational Properties® brands. These incredible marketing programs help expose your property to the buying market in ways never before available anywhere.

As the premier real estate Marketing Organization from the Canadian border to North Carolina, we know the importance of investing in our clients and customers.

And so we do that. In ways other real estate offices can't. Of course, our most valued assets are the sales professionals who practice with us. We invest in their success, too. We give them the tools they need to focus on your needs.

Because we don't bog our folks down with administrative tasks or expect them to do other "stuff" that keeps them from focusing on you, they're able to spend their time doing what they do best... Marketing your home or finding just the right new home for you.

(That's why our Associates call our company - The Place to Be®)

- Deliver unmatched marketing tools and systems -
- Invest in its customers and clients
- Provide the resources and support to its sales professionals so they can concentrate on you.

Just the kinds of things you'd expect from a Marketing Organization, right?

Now, when you sell, buy or practice your profession with us, you have more opportunity for success than you can get anywhere else. Period.

So hang on to your hat. Selling and buying and working in real estate in Southeastern Massachusetts has changed forever.

building will be professionally decorated for a Williamsburg Christmas by Cathy Jones, assisted by club members. Homes on this year's tour are kept "secret" until December 13.

The always-popular Sugar Plum Tea will be held at St. Gabriel's Church from 2:00 to 4:00 pm. Jeanne Lake chairs this function, included in the ticket price. The Marion Art Center also plans special activities centered around the gala tour. A holiday luncheon will be served in the First Congregational Church Community Center from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. Tickets for this function will be sold at the door.

In addition to the professional decorating of Handy's Tavern by Cathy Jones, Flower Works and Eden Landscapes will decorate some of the Marion homes on the tour.

This annual event has long provided holiday cheer and enjoyment for area residents and their guests, who often come from far away to attend. Its more serious purpose is to raise funds for scholarships — last year's event resulted in over $5,000 in scholarship grants.

Tickets for the Holiday House Tour (including the Sugar Plum Tea) are $12 in advance and $15 on December 13. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the Marion General Store, The Bookstall, the Sitting Duck, and Unique Image (all located in the Marion Village).

Laughs Are On FORM

The Friends of Old Rochester Music (FORM) is proud to present "Laughs on Us," a hilarious stand-up comedy show, on Friday, November 14 at 8:00 pm at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Route 6 in Mattapoisett. The headliners for the evening are comedians Rick Beretta and Larry Sullivan.

Rick Beretta has been entertaining audiences at clubs and colleges with his unique sense of humor since 1983. The art of having people laugh at themselves, as well as life's everyday situations, best describes his comedy and his talent creates one of the most effective acts you can experience in stand-up comedy today. Rick has performed at the Boston Comedy Club, the Comedy Connection in Boston, Periwinkles in Providence, and Giggles in Tampa, Florida. He has appeared with big-name acts like The Temptations, Steven Wright, Lenny Clarke, Jimmy Tingle, and Rob Schneider.

With a decade of professional comedy experience, Larry Sullivan has shown himself to be one of the top impersonators/comedians in the country. He has entertained audiences with a refreshingly clean and witty blend of impersonations and social satire. The Boston Globe

Troopers trash big bugs in cheesy but fun retro sci-fi flick

BY ROB GONSALVES

■ Starship Troopers. Starring Casper Van Dien, Dina Meyer, and many large bugs. Directed by Paul Verhoeven. Running time: 129 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At Cinema 140 in New Bedford.

Starship Troopers is about Earth vs. big bugs, so of course I loved every absurd minute of it. I make no apology for that. Breathlessly stupid and endearingly cheesy, this is the best guilty pleasure since Anaconda — if you're in the right mood and in the right company. Put yourself in a state of amused anticipation, and go with at least one witty friend with whom you can play Mystery Science Theater 3000, and you will have a great trashy time.

A film that aims high and misses can still be worthwhile but also frustrating — you think, "It wants to be great, but it just isn't getting there." Starship Troopers doesn't want to be great; all it wants to do is have some fun. It aims low and hits, again and again, with hammering relentlessness and a steady stream of rude satire — not to mention a horde of stunning CGI critters that fold, spindle and mutilate a good percent of the hapless cast. These guys are hands-on killers (or legs-on), and they wipe the floor with the ET's in the tedious Independence Day. The movie is everything ID4 should have been — a big, shiny, straight-faced parody so outrageously violent (and outlandishly corny) that it has a kind of moronic purity.

Starship Troopers (the title evokes SS troopers) is based on a 1959 novel by Robert A. Heinlein — a meat-and-potatoes war story that happens to involve starships and giant bugs. Heinlein, a retired Navy officer, filled his book with military anecdotes, strategies, and ethics. The novel is nuke-'em-till-they-glow militaristic pulp, but it's compulsively readable and fairly provocative — like the best sci-fi, it touches on thorny issues. The society is divided into two groups: citizens (those who serve the government, preferably in combat) and civilians. If you want a peaceful civilian life, nobody begrudges your choice; you just lose the right to vote. Heinlein's point may be that as our enemies get more ruthless and totalitarian, so will we. As Nietzsche warned: "Battle not with monsters, lest ye become one."

Director Paul

Verhoeven and scripter Ed Neumeier, who worked together on Verhoeven's breakthrough hit RoboCop, distill Heinlein's story into a heavy-metal shoot-'em-up with barbs of satire. Remember RoboCop's grotesquely insensitive TV clips and commercials? Starship Troopers is punctuated with sunshiny ads recruiting fresh young cannon fodder — JOIN UP NOW! — and wonderfully sick commercials in which smiling soldiers distribute guns to eager children. The rest of the movie is equally cartoonish, with swipes from Star Wars and Aliens so audaciously blatant you laugh — just as you laugh at everything else, especially when a stupid civilian muses "Looks like rain" before the Bugs wipe out Buenos Aires.

Starship Troopers follows young soldier Johnny Rico (Casper Van Dien) through basic training in the hardcore Mobile Infantry, whose motto is "Everybody fights, no one quits." Yes, everybody: women fight (and shower) alongside men without conflict, harassment, or even much sexual tension. In the book, women weren't troopers; they were trained as starship pilots due to their superior math skills and coordination. In the movie, women fly ships and fry bugs, but Verhoeven doesn't make a big political deal out of it, as G.I. Jane did so ineptly.

The setting may be futuristic, but the characters are out of a '50's big-bug movie. The cast is full of young hunks and babes, mouthing dialogue so corny it's retro-hip. Verhoeven could have directed them with a lyric from Tom Lehrer's "The Hunting Song": "You just stand there looking cute / And if something moves, you shoot." The best line in Starship Troopers is delivered by one-armed lieutenant Michael Ironside with grim intensity: "They sucked his brains out!" When all is said and done, you may feel as if Verhoeven had sucked your brains out, too. But brain-sucking has rarely been so fun.

Adoptable Animals

The local chapter of Animal Umbrella's featured adult cat this week is a long-haired gray tiger female about one year of age. "Mom" (as the group calls her) was rescued extremely pregnant and placed in foster care during which time she presented the group with six kittens. All the kittens were adopted and "Mom" has been spayed and now it is her turn to be rewarded with a loving home where she can be the queen of the household. She is very loving with people but unfortunately has had enough of the feline population. She needs to be the only cat in her new home. If you would like to see "Mom," please call either Susan or Mary Lou.

The group still has a few tiny kittens (eight weeks old), three black and white males, a gray tiger, a gray calico, and a tortoiseshell.

News from the Fairhaven Animal Shelter: the shelter is presently closed during day-time hours due to the lack of an Animal Control Officer. Kristin has moved on and her replacement will not be appointed until November 17. The shelter is being covered and will be open nightly from 7:00 to 9:00 pm.

There are many wonderful dogs awaiting adoption at the shelter, including:

- A beautiful black lab cross male who is young and full of energy. He needs someone young to exercise and give him the companionship he is waiting for;

ORR Drama Presents "Phantom"

Be prepared for a night of humor and mystery as the Old Rochester Drama Club presents Craig Sodaro's "The Phantom of the Soap Opera." The plot roughly follows along the lines of a farcical interpretation of the well-known Andrew Lloyd Webber musical: a mysterious phantom is rumoured to haunt the set of the soap opera, "As The Heart Burns," and the cast members give way to fear as one after another character is found murdered. The cast includes Will Hartley as the scheming Teddy Burnett, Laura Booth as Daphne Davis the aging star, Genevieve Wheeler as Blythe Evans the struggling actress, Rick Charest as Quentin Harris the former NFL player, Ben Kortright as Noah Caine the grandfather figure on the

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). You come into your power and your experience is quite valuable. Everything works out fine. These are pretty good days to ask for a raise.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). An objective third party can help you understand your partner. Explain what's going on for valuable insights.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Watch out for subtle innuendoes. Most of the action is taking place behind the scenes. You and your friends rip and tear.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). A hot-tempered supervisor is in a terrible mood. He or she has no tolerance for excuses, so don't even try any.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). Go ahead and splurge on something for the house, even if you have to go without a toy. You're in a rowdy mood.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You're in the spotlight. A partner can't seem to function without you. Isn't it wonderful to be indispensable?

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). An arrogant older person wants the answer he or she has in mind. Don't even try to win athletic competitions. You'll make more points as a spectator.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You'll be tempted to call in sick. You want to stay home in bed. If you can, do. A partner has a good idea. Listen carefully.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Try not to let a personal soap opera interfere with your work. The boss would not be amused. Launch into your exercise program again.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). If you're a musician or photographer, these are perfect days to practice. Postpone everything else.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You might get the money you need, if you ask nicely. Do your research. Your previous experience could lead you to the perfect answer.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). You're lucky in an exotic setting. Start learning a new language from a native speaker. You're in the mood to shop. Take care; that can get expensive real fast.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: A gentle playmate could be tougher than you thought. Don't push a moral issue. Stiff competition will make you better at your work this year.

When the heroine Regina Brooks (Andrea Caron) disappears, everyone becomes a suspect. Director Paul Sardinha has taken an imaginative approach to the play in changing the setting to the 1950's. To help conjure the image of an early television series, set and costumes will range in shades of black to gray and white. This poses a challenge as even the makeup will be strictly black and white.

WE ALL MAKE MISTAKES

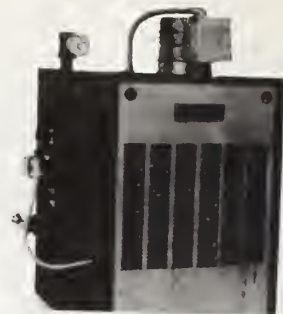

Fortunately, some can be corrected.

So you should have replaced your old oil-guzzling boiler last year. So you made a mistake. Fortunately, you can still save a bundle this year with a fuel-efficient Smith oil-fired boiler. With its 86% efficiency rating, your Smith boiler pays for itself in fuel savings in no time. Add up the efficiency, comfort and limited lifetime warranty and you'll discover that you can't afford to wait another day.
